Or. 3 June 1955, after the new proposals for the reunification of Germany and the strengthening of peace made by the SED Central Committee on 1 and 2 June 1955 had become known, a delegation of CDU from the Humbold's University in East Berlin were received by Dr. Lock, Muschke, and Dr. Girnus of the Committee for German Unity. In a two-hour talk the students criticized the fact that the proposals of the Central Committee only contained demands on West Germany but no concessions on the side of the GDR. At the same time, the students suggested that the Protestent youth organizations in the GDR be officially licensed and that the "Falken", a Social Democratic youth organization, be permitted . to operate as an "association of young Social Democrats" within the framework of the FDJ. It was also demanded by the student delegation that the workers, employees and farmers belonging to the CDJ the LDP be granted the same political privileges as SED members. Complaints were also raised that graduates from high schools who came from bourgeois families did not have the same opportunities for studying at universities as children of workers and farmers. The students pointed this injustice would greatly facilitate the ou, that remedying propagands for the reunification of Germany.

2. Lock, Euschke, and Dr. Girnus promised the students carefully to check all their complaints and suggestions. Pushkin also appeared to be interested in the complaints of the students, about which he was informed by Lock. The students were scheduled to be received at the Soviet Embassy, where they were to discuss their grievances and suggestions in the presence of SED students.
